

The SMART CIC Volunteer Program

1.1 Overall Policy on Utilisation of Volunteers

The achievement of the goals of this agency is best served by the active participation of citizens of the community. To this end, SMART CIC accepts and encourages the involvement of volunteers at all levels of SMART CIC and within all appropriate programs and activities. All staff, Trustees and Directors are encouraged to assist in the creation of meaningful and productive roles in which volunteers might serve and to assist in recruitment of volunteers from the community.

1.2 Purpose of Volunteer Policies

The purpose of these policies is to provide overall guidance and direction to staff and volunteers engaged in volunteer involvement and management efforts. These policies are intended for internal management guidance only, and do not constitute, either implicitly or explicitly, a binding contractual or personnel agreement. SMART CIC reserves the exclusive right to change any of these policies at any time and to expect adherence to the changed policy. Changes to or exceptions from these policies may only be granted by agreement by two or more Trustees, and must be obtained in advance and in writing. Areas not specifically covered by these policies shall be determined by the Volunteer Program Manager (administrator).

1.3 Scope of Volunteer Policies

Unless specifically stated, these policies apply to all non-elected volunteers in all programs and projects undertaken on or on behalf of SMART CIC, and to all partner organisations and sites of operation of SMART CIC.

1.4 Role of the Volunteer Manager

The productive utilisation of volunteers requires a planned and organised effort. The function of the volunteer manager is to provide a central coordinating point for effective volunteer management within SMART CIC, and to direct and assist staff and volunteer efforts to jointly provide more productive services. The manager shall also bear responsibility for maintaining liaison with other volunteer-utilising programs in the community and assisting in community-wide efforts to recognise and promote volunteering. The Volunteer Manager shall bear primary responsibility for planning for effective volunteer utilisation, for assisting staff in identifying productive and creative volunteer roles, for recruiting suitable volunteers, and for tracking and evaluating the contribution of volunteers to SMART CIC.

1.5 Definition of 'Volunteer'

A 'volunteer' is anyone who without compensation or expectation of compensation beyond reimbursement performs a task at the direction of and on behalf of SMART CIC. A 'volunteer' must be SMART CIC Volunteer Management Policy February 2018 officially accepted and enrolled by SMART CIC prior to performance of the task. Unless specifically stated, volunteers shall not be considered as 'employees' of SMART CIC.

1.6 Special Case Volunteers

SMART CIC also accepts as volunteers those participating in student community service activities, student intern projects, alternative sentencing or diversion programs, corporate volunteer programs, and other volunteer referral programs. In each of these cases, however, a special agreement must be in effect with the organisation, school, or program from whom the special case volunteers originate and must identify responsibility for management and care of the volunteers.

1.7 Employees as Volunteers

SMART CIC accepts the services of staff as volunteers. This service is accepted provided that the volunteer service is provided totally without any coercive nature, involves work which is outside the scope of normal staff duties, and is provided outside of usual working hours. Family members of staff are allowed to volunteer with SMART CIC. When family members are enrolled as volunteers, they will not be placed under the direct supervision as other members of their family who are employees.

1.8 Clients and Relatives as Volunteers

SMART CIC clients may be accepted as volunteers, where such service does not constitute an obstruction to or conflict with provision of services to the client or to others. Relatives of clients may also serve as clients, but will not be placed in a position of direct service or relationship to members of their family who are receiving services.

1.9 Service at the Discretion of SMART CIC

SMART CIC accepts the service of all volunteers with the understanding that such service is at the sole discretion of SMART CIC. Volunteers agree that SMART CIC may at any time, for whatever reason, decide to terminate the volunteer's relationship with SMART CIC. The volunteer may at any time, for whatever reason, decide to sever the volunteer's relationship with SMART CIC. Notice of such a decision should be communicated as soon as possible to the volunteer manager.

1.10 Volunteer Rights and Responsibilities

Volunteers are viewed as a valuable resource to SMART CIC, its staff, and its clients. Volunteers shall be extended the right to be given meaningful assignments, the right to be treated as equal co-workers, the right to effective supervision, the right to full involvement and participation, and the right to recognition for work done. In return, volunteers shall agree to actively perform their duties to the best of their abilities and to remain loyal to the goals and procedures of SMART CIC.

1.11 Scope of Volunteer Involvement

Volunteers may be utilised in all programs and activities of SMART CIC, and serve at all levels of skill and decision-making. Volunteers should not, however, be utilised to displace any paid employees from their positions.

2. Volunteer Management Procedures

2.1 Maintenance of Records

A system of records will be maintained on each volunteer with SMART CIC, including dates of service, positions held, duties performed, evaluation of work, and awards received. Volunteers and appropriate staff shall be responsible for submitting all appropriate records and information to the Volunteer Manager in a timely and accurate fashion. Volunteer personnel records shall be accorded the same confidentiality as staff personnel records.

2.2 Two Hat Policy

Members of SMART CIC's board of Trustees are accepted as direct service volunteers with SMART CIC.

2.3 Conflict of Interest

No person who has a conflict of interest with any activity or program of SMART CIC, whether personal, philosophical, or financial shall be accepted or serve as a volunteer with SMART CIC.

2.4 Representation of SMART CIC

Prior to any action or statement which might significantly affect or obligate SMART CIC, volunteers should seek prior consultation and approval from appropriate staff. These actions may include, but are not limited to, public statements to the press, coalition or lobbying efforts with other organisations, or any agreements involving contractual or other financial obligations. Volunteers are authorised to act as representatives of SMART CIC as specifically indicated within their role descriptions and only to the extent of such written specifications.

2.5 Confidentiality

Volunteers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all proprietary or privileged information to which they are exposed while serving as a volunteer, whether this information involves a single staff, volunteer, client, or other person or involves overall agency business. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in termination of the volunteer's relationship with SMART CIC or other corrective action.

2.6 Worksite

An appropriate worksite shall be established prior to the enrolment of any volunteer. This worksite shall contain necessary facilities, equipment, and space to enable to volunteer to effectively and comfortably perform their duties. SMART CIC does not maintain any sites itself and works from the premises of others, or in a public space. The Volunteer Manager will ensure that all work sites are appropriate for the activity and that all volunteers are appropriately assessed and insured for foreseeable risks.

2.7 Dress Code

As representatives of SMART CIC, volunteers, like staff, are responsible for presenting a good image to clients and to the community. Volunteers shall dress appropriately for the conditions and performance of their duties.

2.8 Timesheets

Individual volunteers are responsible for the accurate completion and timely submission of timesheets where this has been agreed as necessary.

3. Volunteer Recruitment and Selection

3.1 Role Descriptions

Volunteer staff, just as paid staff, require a clear, complete, and current description of the duties and responsibilities of the position which they are expected to fill. Prior to any volunteer assignment or recruitment effort, a role description must be developed for each volunteer position. This position will be given to each accepted volunteer and utilised in subsequent management and evaluation efforts. Role descriptions should be reviewed and updated at least every two years, or whenever the work involved in the position changes substantially. All role descriptions shall include a description of the purpose and duties of the position, a designated supervisor and worksite, a timeframe for the performance of the job, a listing of job qualifications, and a description of job benefits. The Volunteer Manager Department is available to assist staff in the development of volunteer jobs and role descriptions.

3.2 Staff Requests for Volunteers

Requests for volunteers to support a particular activity shall be submitted in writing by interested staff, trustees or partner professional, complete with a draft position description and a requested timeframe. Volunteers recruited for general and ongoing roles should have that role agreed at a Board of Trustees meeting and appropriately minuted. All parties should understand that the recruitment of volunteers is enhanced by creative and interesting jobs and by advance notice. The Volunteer Manager reserves the right to refuse to recruit or place any volunteers until all concerned are prepared to make effective use of volunteer resources.

3.3 Recruitment

Volunteers shall be recruited by SMART CIC on a pro-active basis, with the intent of broadening and expanding the volunteer involvement of the community. Volunteers shall be recruited without regard to gender, disability, age, race or other condition. The sole qualification for volunteer recruitment shall be suitability to perform a task on behalf of SMART CIC. Volunteers may be recruited through either an interest in specific functions or through a general interest in volunteering which will later be matched with a specific function. No final acceptance of a volunteer shall take place without a specific written volunteer role description for that volunteer.

3.4 Recruitment of Minors

SMART CIC will not actively seek to recruit Volunteers under the age of 16, but may exceptionally do so. Where this is the case, Volunteers who have not reached their age of majority must have the written consent of a parent or guardian prior to volunteering. The volunteer services assigned to a minor should be performed in a non-hazardous environment and should comply with all appropriate requirements of child safeguarding and employment legislation.

3.5 Interviewing

Prior to being assigned or appointed to a position, all volunteers will be interviewed to ascertain their suitability for and interest in that position. The interview should determine the qualifications of the volunteer, their commitment to fulfil the requirements of the position, and should answer any questions that the volunteer might have about the position. Interviews may be conducted either in person or by other means. The Volunteer Manager will be involved in all interviews.

3.6 Health Screening

In cases where volunteers will be working with clients with health difficulties, a health screening procedure may be required prior to volunteer assignment. In addition, if there are physical requirements necessary for performance of a volunteer task, a screening or testing procedure may be required to ascertain the ability of the volunteer to safely perform the task.

3.7 Criminal Records Check

As appropriate for the protection of clients, volunteers in roles that will involve them working with or alongside young people or vulnerable adults will be asked to submit to a background criminal check. Volunteers who do not agree to the background check (DBS for Volunteers) may be refused assignment.

3.8 Placement with At Risk Clients

Where volunteers are to be placed in direct contact with at risk clients, additional screening procedures may be instituted. These procedures may include reference checks, direct background investigation, criminal investigation, etc. Volunteers who refuse permission for conduct of these checks will not be accepted for placement with clients.

3.9 Certificate of Ability

Any potential volunteer who indicates that they are under the care of a physician for either physical or psychological treatment may be asked to present a certificate from their lead clinician as to their ability to satisfactorily and safely perform their volunteer duties. Volunteers under a course of treatment which might affect their volunteer work will not be accepted without written verification of suitability from their lead clinician. Any volunteer who, after acceptance and assignment by SMART CIC, enters a course of treatment which might adversely impact upon the performance of their volunteer duties should consult with the Volunteer Manager.

3.10 Placement

In placing a volunteer in a position, attention shall be paid to the interests and capabilities of the volunteer and to the requirements of the volunteer position. No placement shall be made unless the requirements of both the volunteer and the supervising staff can be met: no volunteer should be assigned to a 'make-work' position and no position should be given to an unqualified or uninterested volunteer.

3.11 Staff Participation in Interviewing and Placement

Wherever possible, staff who will be working with the volunteer should participate in the design and conduct of the interview. Final assignment of a potential volunteer should not take place without review and approval of appropriate staff with whom the volunteer will be working.

3.12 Acceptance and Appointment

Service as a volunteer with SMART CIC shall begin with an official notice of acceptance or appointment to a volunteer position. Notice may only be given by an authorised representative of SMART CIC, who will normally be the Volunteer Manager. No volunteer shall begin performance of any position until they have been officially accepted for that position and have completed all necessary screening and paperwork. At the time of final acceptance, each volunteer shall complete all necessary enrolment paperwork and shall receive a copy of their job description and agreement of service with SMART CIC.

3.13 Probationary Period

All volunteer placements shall initially be done on a trial period of 30 days. At the end of this period a second interview of the volunteer shall be conducted, at which point either the volunteer or SMART CIC staff may request a re-assignment of the volunteer to a different position or may determine the unsuitability of the volunteer for a position within SMART CIC.

3.14 Re-Assignment

Volunteers who are at any time re-assigned to a new position shall be interviewed for that position and shall receive all appropriate orientation and training for that position before they begin work. In addition, any screening procedures appropriate for that specific position must be completed, even if the volunteer has already been working with SMART CIC.

3.15 Professional Services

Volunteers shall not perform professional services for which certification or licensing is required unless currently certified or licensed to do so. A copy of such certificate or license should be maintained by the Volunteer Manager.

3.16 Length of Service

All volunteer positions shall have a set term of duration. It is highly recommended that this term shall not be longer than one-year, with an option for renewal at the discretion of both parties. All volunteer assignments shall end at the conclusion of their set term, without expectation or requirement of re-assignment of that position to the incumbent. Volunteers are neither expected nor required to accept further service in a position at the end of their set term, although they are welcome to do so in most cases, but may instead seek a different volunteer assignment within SMART CIC, or may retire from volunteer service.

3.17 Leave of Absence

At the discretion of the supervisor, leaves of absence may be granted to volunteers. This leave of absence will not alter or extend the previously agreed upon ending date of the volunteer's term of service. Volunteer Training and Development

4. Initial Support

4.1 Orientation

All volunteers will receive a general orientation on the nature and purpose of SMART CIC, an orientation on the nature and operation of the program or activity for which they are recruited, and a specific orientation on the purposes and requirements of the position which they are accepting in that effort.

4.2 On-the-Job Training

Volunteers will receive specific on-the-job training to provide them with the information and skills necessary to perform their volunteer assignment. The timing and methods for delivery of such training should be appropriate to the complexity and demands of the position and the capabilities of the volunteer.

4.3 Staff Involvement in Orientation and Training

Staff members with responsible over delivery of services should have an active role in the design and delivery of both orientation and training of volunteers. Those staff who will be in a supervisory capacity to volunteers shall have primary responsibility for design and delivery of on-the-job training to volunteers assigned to them.

4.4 Volunteer Involvement in Orientation and Training

Experienced volunteers should be included in the design and delivery of volunteer orientation and training.

4.5 Continuing Education

Just as staff, volunteers should attempt to improve their levels of skill during their terms of service. Additional training and educational opportunities should be made available to volunteers during their connection with SMART CIC. This continuing education may include both additional information on performance of their current volunteer assignment as well as more general information, and might be provided either by SMART CIC or by assisting the volunteer to participate in educational programs provided by other groups.

4.6 Conference Attendance

Volunteers are authorised to attend conferences and meetings which are relevant to their volunteer assignments, including both those of SMART CIC and of other organisation. Prior approval from the volunteer's supervisor should be obtained before attending any conference or meeting if attendance will interfere with the volunteer's work schedule or if reimbursement of expenses is sought.

Volunteer Supervision and Evaluation

5. Supervision

5.1 Requirement of a Supervisor

Each volunteer who is accepted to a position with SMART CIC must have a clearly identified supervisor who is responsible for direct management of that volunteer. This supervisor shall be responsible for day-to-day management and guidance of the work of the volunteer, and shall be available to the volunteer for consultation and assistance.

5.2 Volunteers as Volunteer Supervisors

A volunteer may act as a supervisor of other volunteers, provided that the supervising volunteer is under the direct supervision of a paid staff member, Trustee or Director.

5.3 Volunteer/Staff Relationships

Volunteers and staff are considered to be partners in implementing the mission and programs of SMART CIC, with each having an equal but complementary role to play. It is essential for the proper operation of this relationship that each partner understand and respect the needs and abilities of the other.

5.4 Acceptance of Volunteers by Staff, Trustees and Directors

Since individual staff are in a better position to determine the requirements of their work and their own abilities, no volunteer will be assigned to work with a staff person without the consent of that staff person. Since volunteers are considered a valuable resource in performing SMART CIC's work, staff are encouraged to seriously consider creative ways in which volunteers might be of service and to consult with the Volunteer Manager if they feel in need of assistance or additional training.

5.5 Staff Volunteer Management Training

A briefing on working with volunteers will be provided to all staff. In-service training on effective volunteer utilisation will be provided to those staff who are involved in volunteer management.

5.6 Volunteer Involvement in Staff Evaluation

Examination of their effective utilisation of volunteers may be a component in the evaluation of staff persons who are assigned to work with volunteers. In such cases, supervisors should ask for the input and participation of volunteers in evaluating staff performance.

5.7 Staff Involvement in Volunteer Evaluation

Affected staff should be involved in all evaluation and work assignments of volunteers with whom they are connected.

5.8 Lines of Communication

Volunteers are entitled to all necessary information pertinent to the performance of their work assignments. Accordingly, volunteers should be included in and have access to all appropriate memos, materials, and meetings relevant to the work assignments. To facilitate the receipt of this information on a timely basis, volunteers should be included on all distribution schedules and should be assigned a site or mailbox for receipt on information distributed in their absence. Primary responsibility for ensuring that the volunteer receives such information will rest with the direct supervisor of the volunteer. Lines of communication should operate in both directions, and should exist both formally and informally. Volunteers should be consulted regarding all decisions which would substantially affect the performance of their duties.

5.9 Absenteeism

Volunteers are expected to perform their duties on a regular scheduled and timely basis. If expecting to be absent from a scheduled duty, volunteers should inform their staff supervisor as far in advance as possible so that alternative arrangements may be made. Continual absenteeism will result in a review of the volunteer's work assignment or term of service.

5.10 Substitution

Volunteers may be encouraged to find a substitute for any upcoming absences which might be filled by another volunteer. Such substitution should only be taken following consultation with a supervisor and care should be taken to find a substitute who is qualified for the position. Substitutes may only be recruited from those who are currently enrolled as volunteers with SMART CIC.

5.11 Standards of Performance

Standards of performance shall be established for each volunteer position. These standards should list the work to be done in that position, measurable indicators of whether the work was accomplished, and appropriate timelines for accomplishment of the work. Creation of these standards will be a joint function of staff and the volunteer assigned to the position, and a copy of the standards should be provided to the volunteer along with a copy of their job description at the beginning of their assignment.

5.12 Evaluations

Volunteers shall receive periodic evaluations to review their work. The purpose of the evaluation is to review the performance of the volunteer, to suggest any changes in work style, to seek suggestions from the volunteer on means of enhancing the volunteer's relationship with SMART CIC, to convey appreciation to the volunteer, and to ascertain the continued interest of the volunteer in serving in that position. Evaluations should include both an examination of the volunteer's performance of responsibilities and a discussion of any suggestions that the volunteer may have concerning the role or project with which the volunteer is connected. The evaluation is an opportunity for both the volunteer and SMART CIC to examine and improve their relationship.

5.13 Written Basis for Evaluation

The position description and standards of performance for a volunteer position should form the basis of an evaluation. A written record should be kept of each evaluation.

5.14 Staff Responsibility for Evaluation

It shall be the responsibility of each staff person in a supervisory relationship with a volunteer to schedule and perform periodic evaluation and to maintain records of the evaluation.

5.15 Corrective Action

In appropriate situations, corrective action may be taken following an evaluation. Examples of corrective action include the requirement of additional training, reassignment of a volunteer to a new position, suspension of the volunteer, or dismissal from volunteer service.

5.16 Dismissal of a Volunteer

Volunteers who do not adhere to the rules and procedures of SMART CIC or who fail to satisfactorily perform their volunteer assignment are subject to dismissal. No volunteer will be terminated until the volunteer has had an opportunity to discuss the reasons for possible dismissal with supervisory staff. Prior to dismissal of a volunteer, staff should seek the consultation and assistance of the Volunteer Manager.

5.17 Reasons for Dismissal

Possible grounds for dismissal may include, but are not limited to, the following: gross misconduct or insubordination, being under the influence of alcohol or drugs, theft of property or misuse of agency equipment or materials, abuse or mistreatment of clients or co-workers, failure to abide by agency policies and procedures, failure to meet physical or mental standards of performance, and failure to satisfactorily perform assigned duties.

5.18 Concerns and Grievances

Decisions involving corrective action of a volunteer may be reviewed for appropriateness. If corrective action is taken, the affected volunteer shall be informed of the procedures for expressing their concern or grievance.

5.19 Notice of Departure or Re-Assignment of a Volunteer

In the event that a volunteer departs SMART CIC, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, or is re-assigned to a new position, it shall be the responsibility of the Volunteer Manager to inform those affected staff and clients that the volunteer is no longer assigned to work with them. In cases of dismissal for cause, this notification should be given in writing and should clearly indicate that any further contact with the volunteer is outside any scope of relationship with SMART CIC.

5.20 Resignation

Volunteers may resign from their volunteer service with SMART CIC at any time. It is requested that volunteers who intend to resign provide advance notice of their departure and a reason for their decision.

5.21 Exit Interviews

Exit interviews, where possible, should be conducted with volunteers who are leaving their positions. The interview should ascertain why the volunteer is leaving the position, suggestions the volunteer may have to improving the position, and the possibility of involving the volunteer in some other capacity with SMART CIC.

5.22 Communication with the Volunteer Manager

Staff who are supervising volunteers are responsible for maintaining regular communication with the Volunteer Manager on the status of volunteers, and are responsible for the timely provision of all necessary paperwork. The Volunteer Manager should be informed immediately of any substantial change in the work or status of a volunteer and should be consulted in advance before any corrective action is taken.

5.23 Evaluation of SMART CIC Volunteer Utilisation

The Volunteer Manager shall conduct an annual evaluation of the utilisation of volunteers by SMART CIC. This evaluation shall include information gathered from volunteers, staff, and clients. Volunteer Support and Recognition

6. Recognition and Reward

6.1 Reimbursement of Expenses Volunteers are eligible for reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred while undertaking business for SMART CIC. The Volunteer Manager shall distribute information to all volunteers regarding specific reimbursable items. Prior approval must be sought for any major expenditure.

6.2 Access to Agency Property and Materials As appropriate, volunteers shall have access to agency property and materials necessary to fulfill their duties, and shall receive training in the operation of any equipment. Property and materials shall be utilised only when directly required for agency purposes.

6.3 Insurance Liability and accident insurance, other than Public Liability Insurance is not provided for all volunteers engaged in SMART CIC business. Volunteers are encouraged to consult with their own insurance agents regarding the extension of their personal insurance to include community volunteer work. Specific information regarding such insurance is available from the Volunteer Manager.

6.4 Recognition

An annual volunteer recognition event will be conducted to highlight and reward the contribution of volunteers to SMART CIC. Volunteers will be consulted and involved in order to develop an appropriate format for the event.

6.5 Informal Recognition

All staff, Trustees, Directors and volunteers responsible for volunteer supervision are encouraged to undertake on-going methods of recognition of volunteer service on a regular basis throughout the year. These methods of informal recognition should range from simple "Thank You's" to a concerted effort to include volunteers as full participants in program decision making and implementation.

6.6 Volunteer Career Paths

Volunteers are encouraged to grow and develop their skills while serving with SMART CIC, and are to be assisted through promotion to new volunteer jobs to assume additional and greater responsibilities. If so desired by the volunteer, SMART CIC should assist the volunteer in maintaining appropriate records of volunteer experience that would assist the volunteer in future career opportunities, both paid and volunteer.

6.7 Staff Recognition

The Volunteer Manager shall design a program for recognition of staff who work well with volunteers and shall consult with volunteers to identify appropriate staff to receive such awards
